Revealed Revelation

"In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams

- Acts 2:17

From the beginning God spoke to the mankind through the visions and the dreams. Sometimes God revealed the things through His servants. We can see many things, what all happened in the lives of the people in the Bible history and also in the lives of every human. Coming to the Bible history, God revealed about the heaven and also how this world is going to end. If go through the book of revelation in the Bible, we will see the visions that God gave to His servant Apostle John. In the Old Testament also God revealed the future happening things. God used the Daniel to reveal the vision and the dreams, the dreams which were happened in those days. Daniel explained about the dreams of the king. God revealed through the dreams which were take place in those days and also the future.

Let us go through this book to learn many more things about the dreams and the visions with the biblical evidences.

Difference between a dream and a vision

A vision is where you see something; you get a heavenly perspective either in your literal eyes or in your mind's eye. A dream is what you see when you're asleep. Visions are often much more clear and less ambiguous in meaning than their dream counterparts. A vision is often like a dream when awake.

Dream

Vision

What is spiritual vision?

Visions generally have more clarity than dreams, but traditionally fewer psychological connotations. Visions are known to emerge from spiritual traditions and could provide a lens into human nature and reality. Prophecy is often associated with visions.

Here we can see the vision of the Apostle Peter. Unless God give this vision to him, he will not go to the house of Cornelius to present the Gospel. This vision helped the Cornelius and his household to accept the Jesus Christ as their personal savior. Apostle Peter was in the impression that the Gospel is only for the Jews. This vision did great change in the spiritual life of Apostle Peter.

What does it mean to have visions?

Some people report having visions during meditation. Having a “vision” is defined as experiencing something out of the ordinary that wouldn't be real in the normal state of things, but that seems very real to us when it occurs. One of the characteristics of a “vision” is that others can't see it.

God gave this kind of visions to His servants in the Bible history. “Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in your law - Psalm 119:18” “He sees me face to face, and everything I say to him is perfectly clear- Numbers 12:8a” God spoke to His servants and the children in different ways. When we are in the meditation, that may lead us to have the visions.

Vision of the future

Precognition (from the Latin prae, “before” and cognitio, “acquiring knowledge”), also called prescience, future vision, future sight is a claimed psychic ability to see events in the future.

ere we can see the visions of future given to the Apostle John. God gave the great H privilege to the Apostle John to reveal to the mankind to know how this world is going to end. Coming to my life and the ministry, I had this kind of experiences. God gave the visions to me regarding the future things to be happening in my life and also in the lives of the others.

God speak to you through dreams

God sometimes uses dreams to communicate and he may do so for anyone who's paying attention. The world's religious texts often describe God or his angels speaking to humans through dreams.

If we go through the lives of the Bible heroes; God showed the things to be happened in the future life; in the dreams. We can notice this in the life of Jacob. Coming to my life and the ministry, I had enough experience in my life. God spoke to me directly sometime when it is urgent. He gave the visions to me in deferent situations. In general and common situations He spoke to me and also revealed the things through the dreams.

Power of visions

Being an artificial life-form/android of sorts, the Vision has superhuman senses, superhuman stamina, reflexes, speed, agility, strength (Even without being at high density), superhuman analytical capabilities, and the ability to process information and make calculations with superhuman speed and accuracy.

How do visions happen?

Vision occurs when light rays are bent (refracted) as they pass through the cornea and the lens. The light is then focused on the retina. The retina converts the light-rays into messages that are sent through the optic nerve to the brain.

What does the Bible says about vision

According to the Bible, one of the most common ways God uses to communicate his will to humans is through visions. They are vivid apparitions that are distinct from dreams. Although they usually appear during waking (conscious) hours, the Bible does seem to indicate that a person can experience visions while dreaming.

Samuel's Vision

visions may involve natural or supernatural settings, and the individual experiencing this miracle may be either an observer or a participant. In the Old Testament, they were considered so important that their absence was a cause of great concern for the ancient Israelites (1Samuel 3:1; Proverbs 29:18). Some of the great men of the Bible experienced visions, often changing their lives and those of others in a dramatic way.

Vision's in the Bible

The English word “Visions” and its singular form occurs 86 times in the Old Testament of the King James Bible and 17 times in the New Testament. In comparison, the words “Dreams” or “Dream” occurs 87 times in the Old Testament and 8 times in the New Testament. The book with the most occurrences of visions (or its singular) is the book of Daniel (32 times) followed by Ezekiel (18).

Abraham's Vision

Those who experienced the visions as a means of God revealing information to them include Eliphaz (A friend of Job; Job 4); Abraham (Genesis 15); Jacob (Genesis 46); the false prophet Balaam (Numbers 24); Micaiah (1Kings 22) and a very young Samuel the prophet (1Samuel 3). Nathan the prophet was told not only that King David's throne would be established forever but also that David's son (Solomon) would build a temple for God in Jerusalem (2 Samuel 7).

Ezekiel's Vision

Ezekiel had many things revealed to him through visions. The Bible records he was shown God's glory and His throne (Ezekiel 1), was informed of the abominations committed at Jerusalem's temple (Chapter 8) and was taken before Israel's elders in Babylonian captivity (Chapter 11). He also saw a valley of dry bones representing Israel re-gathered (Chapter 37) and witnessed God at the temple calling for his people to repent (Chapter 43).

Daniel's Vision

Daniel saw several visions, including one showing four great world empires (Daniel 7); the Ancient of Days sitting on his throne (Daniel 7:9 - 10) and a prophetic ram and a he-goat (Chapter 8). He also saw the events which will occur in the end time (Chapter 10).

Isaiah's Vision

Isaiah was told, through visions, of future events to occur to the Kingdoms of Judah and Jerusalem (Isaiah 1, 22) and Babylon (Chapter 21). Many of the Old Testament's Minor Prophets received visionary revelations, including Obadiah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Amos, and Zechariah.

Peter, James, and John's Vision

eter, James, and John saw the transfiguration of Jesus in a vision and the appearance of P Moses and Elijah (Matthew 17:1 - 9). Stephen, just before becoming the first Christian martyr, also was able to miraculously see God's throne with Jesus standing at his right hand (Acts 7:55). A believer named Ananias has Jesus tell him to visit a repentant Saul (Apostle Paul) and heal him (Acts 9).

Cornelius's Vision

Roman Centurion named Cornelius is told to request that Peter to come and baptize him just before Peter is miraculously shown a sheet filled with unclean animals (Acts 10). The apostle John had the entire book of Revelation revealed to him through the visions.

Paul's Vision

Paul experiences several miraculous revelations throughout his life. His first one is seeing a man named Ananias coming to baptize and heal him (Acts 9). Soon after his baptism he flees to Arabia, where he is taught the gospel by Christ himself through what is likely a series of visions (Galatians 1:11 – 12; 17 - 18).

Vision for Paul's ministry

Later in Paul's ministry, he miraculously sees in his mind a man from Macedonia asking him for help (Chapter 16), being told to speak boldly in Corinth (Chapter 18), and informed to leave Jerusalem immediately (Chapter 22). Paul is also blessed to see in his mind's eye the 'third heaven' where God's throne resides (2 Corinthians 12).

What is their purpose?

In the Bible, we find visions serving a variety of purposes. They can convey what will happen in the future (prophecy) or teach spiritual truth. They can be used to strengthen a believer during a trial, reveal events that would otherwise be unknown or reveal God's majesty. They can confirm punishment for sin, inform someone to do God's will, or even provide encouragement and hope. Lastly, they can confirm a blessing or promise, or reveal God's plan for man.

It is a risky thing for any person to claim that God has given them visions when, in reality, he has not done so. Those in the Bible who lied about receiving messages from the Lord, regardless of the means, were put to death in the Old Testament (Deuteronomy 13:1 - 3, 5; Jeremiah 23:16, 27, 32).

Visions in the Bible

God wants to give you a greater vision of who He is and the plans He has for you.

G Satan's goal is to use guilt, insecurity and fears to keep us from growing and living a full, joyful life. You can tap into the power of God's vision for your life by meditating on Scriptures of promise!

When you spend time in prayer, worship and the Word, God will reveal dreams and visions far greater than you ever imagined. Here are my favorite Bible verses when I'm seeking the Lord's guidance and vision over my life, as well as a prayer to focus my heart.

Lord, I praise you for inviting me into your eternal purpose. I thank you that you are working out everything in conformity with the purpose of your will (Ephesians 1:11). You are the master strategist. Give me a greater vision of your purpose for my life. Awaken my heart and establish your reign in my life. Out of Your glorious riches strengthen me with power through Your Spirit in my inner being and give me a spirit of wisdom and revelation that I may know you better (Ephesians 3:16-17). Make me fully alive to your destiny in my life.

Holy Ghost as the gift

Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit - Acts 2:38 ere we will receive the Holy Ghost as the gift after the baptism. Why God grating the H Holy Ghost to us? We lost the Godly glory though the Adam and Eve, God is giving that glory again to us through Jesus Christ. Why do we need the Holy Ghost?

Functions of the Holy Spirit: 1. Dwell in us: - Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it sees Him not, neither knows Him: but you know Him; for He dwells with you, and shall be in you - John 14:17

2. Teach us all thing: The Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things - John 14:26

3. Bring remembrance of all things Jesus said:- The Comforter, who is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you - John 14:26

4. Testifies of Jesus Christ:- When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, He shall testify of me - John 15:26

5. Convict world of sin, righteousness and judgment:- When he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment - John 16:8

6. Guide us in all truth:- However when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak - John 16:13

7. Tell us things to come:- He shall glorify Me: for He shall take what is mine, and shall show it unto you. All things that the Father has are mine: therefore said I, that He shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you - John 16:14-15

8. Glorifies Jesus:- He shall glorify me; My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me - John 10:27

To have the Godly visions and the dreams; everyone must have the holy ghost in them. The Holy Ghost leads us in the right way to fulfill the plans of the living God in your life.

False Visions

This is what the LORD Almighty says: “Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD - Jeremiah 23:16

Here we can see the false visions. True visions are there. Satan was always misleading the people in every area of the spiritual life from the beginning. Coming to the lives of Adam and Eve, Satan gave the wrong teachings to them for the destruction. These kinds of things are happening till now among the God’s children’s lives. God used the visions and the dreams to lead the people. Same time Satan used some people to give the false visions to mislead the people. The God’s children must aware of the false spirits.

“Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world - 1 John 4:1”

Coming to my life and the ministry, from the beginning I am very much careful about the false visions. When we go away from the Living God, there is every danger for someone to miss lead by the false visions. Those visions will destroy our spiritual life. From the day one I was accepted Jesus Christ as the personal savior; getting up in the early house at 4:30 am to spend the time in the prayers, that prayer life protecting me always not to fall in the false visions.

Plans for the future

I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plan to give you hope and a future - Jeremiah 29:11

God has His own plans for His children for their future life, God led the people through the visions and the dreams. God always have the better plans for His children. If we go through the begging of the universe, God saw that everything was good that what all He made. Sometimes we do not know what is going to happen in the future life. The plans for our future made by the God, were really wonderful.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I never took any emotional decisions in the life. I believed in the God and His guidance in everything. That kind of life made me to receive the better things in the life.

Life in the God

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full - John 10:10

The life in the God will helps us to live in the better spiritual life. When we are in the God; we will have abundant life. The desire of the God is for us to live with Him here on the face of the earth and also forever in the eternal life. When someone turns towards the world and its glitters, they will go away from the living God. That kind of life leads to the destruction. To live in the God is not easy; God is holy, we are bound to live holy for the living God.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I am living in the God from the day one; I accepted Him as the personal savior. My life in the God is leading me to go deep into the spiritual life to see the wonders continually.

Visions and dreams will be raveled

“Listen to my words: “When there is a prophet among you, I, the LORD, reveal myself to them in visions, I speak to them in dreams - Numbers 12:6

God himself revealing that; He will communicate the people through the dreams and the visions. God mentioned the name of the Moses here. God guided them in the right way. When God revealed His plans to the people; He will take the responsibility of providing the needs time to time for them.

Coming to my life and the ministry, this is the secret of our ministry growth time to time. From the day one our ministry growing rapidly both in the number and in the spirit, that itself is the great witness, which the God is with us.

Revelation restrains

Where there is no revelation, people cast off restraint; but blessed is the one who heeds wisdom's instruction - Proverbs 29:18

People must have the revelation to live for the Living God. When we go to the New Testament, Jesus himself told us this “If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you” - John 15:7

Coming to my life and the ministry, one fine day I was happy to meet one pastor and his wife. While we are talking, I questioned them what's your vision for the ministry.

Immediately that pastor and his wife asked me what the vision is. They have no vision for their ministry; same time they do not know what is the meaning of vision. You can understand what kind of ministry they are doing? By the God's grace we have the clear vision for our ministry; that's making us to do the wonders to reach the un-reached.

God will hear your voice

In the morning, LORD, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait expectantly - Psalm 5:3

God loves to listen our voice, talking to the God means; praying to God. Talking to G God (Prayer) is very important thing in the lives of His children. The last message that Jesus Christ gave to the disciples at the garden of Gethsemane was “Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak - Matthew 26:41” every believer on the face of the earth is bound to pray (Talk) to God every day. Prayer less person is the powerless person. To keep ourselves strong, we need to talk (Pray) to God every day.

Coming to my life and the ministry; the secret of the growth in our ministry is the prayer.

My prayers are making me and my family to stand for the Living God with the good testimony.

Dwelling in the house of God

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever - Psalm 23:5 – 6

The visions or the dreams help us to know the plans of God in our lives. These things will help us to live with the God in His presence. Now we are living away from the God as we are in the body. “Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. For we live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord - 2 Corinthians 5:6 – 8” it’s the great privilege for the children of God to live for Him here on the face of the earth and live with Him forever in the eternal life.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I love to live for Him on the face of the earth and love to live with Him in the eternal life. For this life we need to practice the life in the spirit to be Him with here and also in the heaven. I am very much confident that I am dwelling in the house of God all the times.

God speak through visions

One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: “Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent. For I am with you, and no one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city - Acts 18:9 – 10 ere we can see the God’s servant speaking to the people. God gave the vision the His Hservant to present the Gospel without fear. Coming to my life and the ministry, I had many experiences like this. In my travel to the around globe, there were many situations to take the strong decisions to stand for the living God. In every situation well in the advance God use to give the visions to me; what to do with those situations. I was able to present the gospel in the effective way to reach the un-reached. Till today God is speaking to me through the visions and dreams to do the effective ministry.

Vision of Daniel

In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed - Daniel 7:13 – 14

God blessed Daniel with the wisdom of visions. Those visions made him strong to stand
G for the living God. Through the visions God glorified His name among those people.
God also blessed him to reveal the things to be happened in the end times. God blessed him with the divine wisdom.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I had this kind of blessing. God gave the visions to me to reveal the happy thing in the ministry and also in the lives of others. This blessing helped me a lot to bring the people to the knowledge of the living God.

Revelation on an appointed time

Then the LORD replied: “Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald may run with it. For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay - Habakkuk 2:2 – 3 ere we can see two things. One is writing the visions. This kind of spirit made me to H write this book. As the matter of fact we need to write the visions on paper. We can see in the life of John who wrote the book of revelation. The second thing, every revelation, takes place in the appointed time. “My times are in your hands; deliver me from the hands of my enemies, from those who pursue me - Psalm 31:15” “He changes times and seasons; he deposes kings and raises up others. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning - Daniel 2:21”

Vision to restore sight

In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, “Ananias!” “Yes, Lord,” he answered. The Lord told him, “Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight - Acts ere we can that how Paul lost his sight when he encountered the Living God. Now it's Hthe time for him to get the sight back. For that, God sent His servant Ananias to pray for him. It's not only for the Paul but also for every believer who encountered the living God in their lives. Here Paul lost the physical sight. In general the people are losing their spiritual sight. They need to have the spiritual sight.

9:10 – 12

Coming to my life and the ministry, when I accepted the Jesus Christ as my personal savior; God opened my spiritual eyes. That is helping me to see the God's plans and the paths in my life and in the ministry. That makes us to keep on grow in the ministry both in the spirit and the number.

Paul's vision and revelation

1 I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know God knows. And I know that this man whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows, was caught up to paradise and heard inexpressible things, things that no one is permitted to tell - 2 Corinthians 12:1 – 4

Here St.Paul had a vision. That vision is speaking about a person who went to the heaven. That's the great privilege for him to have such vision. Here it speaks that St.Paul is living in the Jesus Christ. He got no other agendas than the God's work. For that reason he mentioned as "For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better - Philippians 1:21"

Coming to my life and the ministry, I had this kind of situations. I feel all the times that the God is with me. I feel His presence with me all times. Because of that reason, God blessed me to have many visions like this that what St.Paul had.

Youth will see the visions

“And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days. I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the LORD has said, even among the survivors whom the LORD calls - Joel 2:28 - 32 ere the prophet proclaiming prophesy; that the things will happen in the end times. Youth will have the visions in those days. Old men will have the dreams. What all the prophesy God gave through the prophet is happening in these days.

In the years 1972, there was the great spiritual movement in our areas. God rose the youth for His ministry. Many youth got the visions and came forward to live for the living God as the living vessels. I was one of the youth in those days who accepted Jesus Christ as my personal savior.

Vision of heaven

Then I saw “a new heaven and a new earth,” for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ‘He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’ or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!”

Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true

- Revelation 21:1 – 5

Here the God servant John saw the heaven in the vision. God revealed the heaven and its majesty through the vision. That vision was wrote and kept for the mankind to what is haven and its glory. The vision of heaven here the true, in many other religions, they mentioned about the heaven according to their own thinking. Many people also witnessed the heaven in their visions that what was mentioned in the Bible “Book of Revelation.” In India, there was man called Kailas Maharishi who went to the heaven in the spirit and wrote all of his visions through Sadhu Sunder Singh the man of God who visited him in person in the Mount Kailas. There were many people that went to heaven in the spirit and saw and conformed that what they read in the Book of Revelation.

God gave the great privilege for me to saw the heaven in the vision. I have seen the same heaven what all Apostle John mentioned in his Book of Revelation.

Heavens are opened in vision

I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and wages war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself. He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God. The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. Coming out of his mouth is a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. “He will rule them with an iron scepter.” He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF

KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS - Revelation 19:11 – 16

In this vision the servant of God mentioned about the white horse. Those things he mentioned will take place in the end times. In the end time the world will speak much about the peace without having that in their lives. In these days some kind of terror organizations are killing the people in the brutal way in the name of their evil God. Some of them are becoming the suicide bombers to kill the innocent people around the world. God revealed these things through the visions long time back.

In these days the churches are also facing the same kind of problems. The governments are destroying the churches and killing believers in the brutal way. In India, the church is facing the persecution through the Hindu extremists. They are destroying the churches and killing the Christians by uttering the word peace. To come to the power they are using the word peace, once they came to the power, they showing their real colors by doing bloodshed in the churches. In these situations also the church is growing rapidly? Because the church knows what will happen in the end times. The things were mentioned well in advance through the vision of the saints.

Coming to my life and the ministry, we faced almost all this kind of problems to our ministry. Out of all those troubles and the tribulation, our church is growing day by day.

Seven Angels with Seven Plagues

I saw in heaven another great and marvelous sign: seven angels with the seven last plagues last, because with them God's wrath is completed. And I saw what looked like a sea of glass glowing with fire and, standing beside the sea, those who had been victorious over the beast and its image and over the number of its name. They held harps given them by God and sang the song of God's servant Moses and of the Lamb: "Great and marvelous are your deeds, Lord God Almighty. Just and true are your ways, King of the nations. Who will not fear you, Lord, and bring glory to your name? For you alone are holy. All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous acts have been revealed." After this I looked, and I saw in heaven the temple that is, the tabernacle of the covenant law and it was opened. Out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues. They were dressed in clean, shining linen and wore golden sashes around their chests. Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed - Revelation 15 ere we can see the things which are going to take place in the end times. Everything is H in the control of the living God. As the matter of fact the God servant wrote all the vision which he had, he does not know that they will happen or not. What all the visions God gave to him is happening now. This was the clear vision that God gave well in advance to the mankind.

The church in these end times watching every vision that was given through the Apostle John. If we watch the world news; many of these things are happening. In the other side the world is preparing to face the things mentioned by the God servant.

Isaiah's Commission

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory.” At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty.” Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" He said, "Go and tell this people: " 'Be ever hearing, but never understanding; be ever seeing, but never perceiving.' Make the heart of this people calloused; make their ears dull and close their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed." Then I said, "For how long, Lord?" And he answered: "Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are left deserted and the fields ruined and ravaged, until the LORD has sent everyone far away and the land is utterly forsaken. And though a tenth remains in the land, it will again be laid waste. But as the terebinth and oak leave stumps when they are cut down, so the holy seed will be the stump in the land all of Isaiah through the vision. Here the God servant was blessed to see the angels and the glory of heaven. He admitted himself that he has the unholy lips. There the angel took the fire from alter and touched the lips of the God servant. In this vision God revealed the hardness of the heart with the fat. God also mentioned that their eyes were closed not to see. This kind of situation will be there till the destruction of the world.

Coming to my life and the ministry, God called me and made me holy to live for Him.

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness - 1 John 1:9." "The scriptures were very clear "for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy - 1 Peter 1:16." God has forgiven all of my sins and made me holy to use as the mighty vessel to reach the un-reached.

Visions and Dreams

Vision for great Reward

The Lord's Covenant with Abram: The word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision: "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your very great reward." But Abram said, "Sovereign Lord, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the Lord came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son who is your own flesh and blood will be your heir." He took him outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars if indeed you can count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your offspring be." Abram believed the Lord, and he credited it to him as righteousness. He also said to him, "I am the Lord, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to take possession of it -

Genesis 15:1 - 7

God spoke with Abraham through the vision that how He is going to bless him. That's the great Covenant God made with Abraham. He believed the words of the God. If we go through the Bible history, God spoke to many people and told them how He is going to bless them. But few people believed the promises of the God. Coming to the Abraham: he believed the Lord, and he credited it to him as righteousness. He was also called as the father for the believers.

Abraham conformed himself with God about the promises: Abram said, "Sovereign Lord, how can I know that I will gain possession of it?" So the Lord said to him, "Bring me a heifer, a goat and a ram, each three years old, along with a dove and a young pigeon." Abram brought all these to him, cut them in two and arranged the halves opposite each other; the birds, however, he did not cut in half. Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away. As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and a thick and dreadful darkness came over him. Then the Lord said to him, “Know for certain that for four hundred years your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own and that they will be enslaved and mistreated there. But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will come out with great possessions. You, however, will go to your ancestors in peace and be buried at a good old age. In the fourth generation your descendants will come back here, for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure.” When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, a smoking firepot with a blazing torch appeared and passed between the pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram and said, “To your descendants I give this land, from the Wadi[e] of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites, Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaites, Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites and Jebusites.” - Genesis 15: 8 - 21

Vision of presenting God himself

Jacob Goes to Egypt: So Israel set out with all that was his, and when he reached Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. And God spoke to Israel in a vision at night and said, “Jacob! Jacob!” “Here I am,” he replied. “I am God, the God of your father,” he said. “Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Joseph’s own hand will close your eyes.”- Genesis 46:1 – 4

God himself presenting to Jacob in the vision, He is giving the assurance to Jacob that He will go with him and also bless him and his children and children. God fulfilled His promises in the life of Jacob through his son Joseph.

Coming to my life and the ministry, during my travel around the globe, in many situations God spoke to me through the visions and guided me in the foreign lands. He fulfilled His promises in my life to living for His glory.

Cows dream of Pharaoh

Pharaoh's Dreams: When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile, when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds. After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank. And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up. He fell asleep again and had a second dream: Seven heads of grain, healthy and good, were growing on a single stalk. After them, seven other heads of grain sprouted thin and scorched by the east wind. The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy, full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up; it had been a dream - Genesis 41:1 – 7 ere Pharaoh got the dream; that dream revealed him that what is going to happen in His country. God used Daniel to explain the dream to help the king to take the needful arrangements to face that famine. Coming to my life and the ministry, God revealed me through the dreams what are the things are going to happen in the future. Same time

He also helped us to pass through those problems.

Vision of Burning bush

The angel of the LORD appeared to him in a blazing fire from the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, yet the bush was not consumed. So Moses said, "I must turn aside now and see this marvelous sight, why the bush is not burned up - Exodus 3:2 – 3

Moses had the vision of the burning bush. There God revealed the future program to Moses. He told that Moses needs to go to the Egypt to release the Israelites from the bandages. God chosen Moses and led him to the great work to bring the Israelites to the Promised Land.

Dream of the tent

When Gideon came, behold, a man was relating a dream to his friend. And he said, "Behold, I had a dream; a loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down so that the tent lay flat." His friend replied, "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given Midian and all the camp into his hand." When Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. He returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for the LORD has given the camp of Midian into your hands - Judges 7:13 – 15

Gideon had the dream which revealed him that God is going to give the victory on the enemies. What all God showed him the dream; took place in his life. God used him to protect Israelites from the enemy's hand.

God's call to boy Samuel

One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place. The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the house of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called Samuel. Samuel answered, “Here I am.” And he ran to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” But Eli said, “I did not call; go back and lie down.” So he went and lay down. Again the Lord called, “Samuel!” And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” “My son,” Eli said, “I did not call; go back and lie down.” Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord: The word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. A third time the Lord called, “Samuel!” And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” Then Eli realized that the Lord was calling the boy. So Eli told Samuel, “Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, ‘Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place. The Lord came and stood there, calling as at the other times, “Samuel! Samuel!” Then Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.” And the Lord said to Samuel: “See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears about it tingle. At that time I will carry out against Eli everything I spoke against his family from beginning to end. For I told him that I would judge his family forever because of the sin he knew about; his sons blasphemed God, and he failed to restrain them. Therefore I swore to the house of Eli, ‘The guilt of Eli’s house will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.’” Samuel lay down until morning and then opened the doors of the house of the Lord. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision, - 1 ere God spoke to little boy Samuel about the children of Eli. In those days God was not H appearing to the people. After the long gap God spoke to the little boy Samuel about the evilness of Eli’s children. He also expressed that Eli was unable to condemn the children about their evil works. That led him to see the destruction of his total family.

Coming to my life and the ministry, God revealed many things like this towards the people. Here the servant of God Eli accepted the words of God through the little boy Samuel. But in my life, most of the people were denied my words and some people abused me with bad words. In the end the things revealed through me were took place. Than the people came to know that God revealed the things to me well in the advance.

God's word to Nathan

God's Promise to David: After the king was settled in his palace and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent." Nathan replied to the king, "Whatever you have in mind, go ahead and do it, for the Lord is with you." But that night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying: "Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the Lord says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in? I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling. Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?"' "Now then, tell my servant David,

‘This is what the Lord Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, and appointed you ruler over my people Israel. I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men on earth. And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies. “The Lord declares to you that the Lord himself will establish a house for you: When your days are over and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish his kingdom. He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be his father, and he will be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him with a rod wielded by men, with floggings inflicted by human hands. But my love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you. Your house and your kingdom will endure forever before me; your throne will be established forever.’” Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation - 2 od spoke to King David through the prophet Nathan regarding the temple of God and Ghow God is going to bless him in every areas of his life for the God’s glory. God used David to prepare the things for the construction of the Temple of Jerusalem and fulfilled that project through his son Solomon; God revealed these things through His servants to his children.

God spoke to Solomon in dream to know his wish

The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.” Solomon answered, “You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son to sit on his throne this very day. “Now, Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David.

But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties. Your servant is here among the people you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to count or number.

So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?” The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this. So God said to him, “Since you have asked for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment in administering justice, I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be. Moreover, I will give you what you have not asked for both wealth and honor so that in your lifetime you will have no equal among kings. And if you walk in obedience to me and keep my decrees and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life.” Then Solomon awoke and he realized it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord’s covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he gave a feast for all his court - 1 Kings 3:4 – 15

Here we can see that King Solomon asked God that what he need. God pleased with his request and granted the wisdom and also the riches to him. Lot of people does not what they want. When peter and John going to the temple, they found one lame man who is expecting the silver and the gold. He needs the healing not the gold and silver. The word of God telling people what they need to seek. “Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well - Matthew 6:33”

oming to my life and the ministry, God called me to preach the Christ crucified. I am Cobedient to His call and doing the same job effective to reach the un-reached. Because of my obedient to His call; God is using me in the greater way to reach many people with the gospel; through the books/ video sermons and also the personal evangelism. I came to know well in advance that what I need for the ministry to do the effective work. God was pleased with my request and using the way He like.

Seraphim in the vision of Isaiah

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory.” At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty.” Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”- Isaiah 6:1 - 8 ere we can see the cry of Isaiah and the works of seraphim: “Woe to me!” I cried. “Ham ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty.” Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Coming to my life and the ministry; I have faced the same kind of thing. I was the sinner and did all kinds of sins in my life. The living God forgiven all of my sins and made me the holy in His sights to do the effective ministry to reach the un-reached with the gospel.

Four living beings in the vision of Ezekiel

I looked, and I saw a windstorm coming out of the north an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The center of the fire looked like glowing metal, and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures. In appearance their form was human, but each of them had four faces and four wings. Their legs were straight; their feet were like those of a calf and gleamed like burnished bronze. Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. All four of them had faces and wings, and the wings of one touched the wings of another. Each one went straight ahead; they did not turn as they moved. Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a human being, and on the right side each had the face of a lion, and on the left the face of an ox; each also had the face of an eagle. Such were their faces. They each had two wings spreading out upward, each wing touching that of the creature on either side; and each had two other wings covering its body. Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went. The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures; it was bright, and lightning flashed out of it. The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning - Ezekiel 1:4 – 14 he vision of Ezekiel was explaining the majesty of the heaven and its glory with the angels and the son of God and his moving. This is also linked to the end time ministry. We can see these things in the revelation of Apostle John. This vision speaks about the things happening and to be happening in the heaven. This vision also explaining about; how God made the angels and its wings with its purpose.

Vision of dry bones

The hand of the Lord was on me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the Lord and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I said, “Sovereign Lord, you alone know.” Then he said to me, “Prophecy to these bones and say to them, ‘Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord! This is what the Sovereign Lord says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life. I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’” So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them. Then he said to me, “Prophecy to the breath; prophecy, son of man, and say to it, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says: Come, breath, from the four winds and breathe into these slain, that they may live.’” So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet a vast army -

Ezekiel 37:1 - 10

God gave this vision to Ezekiel regarding the Israelites. They are in the thinking that Gwere became the dry; they cannot do anything to go head. God spoke to them though the prophet that they will be restored and will become as the great army. Here we can see the power of the living God.

Coming to my life and the ministry, this kind of things happened in my life. There were the situations like this that I thought my life was over. I thought that I cannot live further for the living God. In those situations, I was so weak to kneel down and pray. Sometimes I use to roll on the ground with heavy cry and the shouting to the living God. I can say that situation like these dry bones. God restored me like these bones and gave the life to stand for Him as the mighty vessel for His glory. People who are watch my troubles and the pains, thought that I will be no more. When they saw the way God restored me to stand for Him as the mighty vessel. The Lord was glorified through those wonders. God is great all the times; we need the faith in Him to see the wonders in our life.

Vision to reveal mysteries

"However, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will take place in the latter days This was your dream and the visions in your mind while on your bed - Daniel 2:28

God gave the visions to Nebuchadnezzar regarding the end times, great God always revealed the things to the prophets; what will happen in the future to the mankind.

God never did anything all of sudden. The world is belonging to Him. Every person on the face of the earth is the creation of Him. For this great reason He came all the way from the heaven to save the mankind. God gave the great responsibility to the church. "He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation - Mark 16:15" here we can see the love of God towards the mankind. Coming to His responsibility to the mankind He instructed the church to inform the mankind about the end times. "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come - Matthew 24:14." Long time back God revealed about the end times through the Nebuchadnezzar.

Vision of locust-swarm

Locusts, Fire and a Plumb Line: This is what the Sovereign Lord showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts after the king's share had been harvested and just as the late crops were coming up. When they had stripped the land clean, I cried out, "Sovereign Lord, forgive! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!" So the Lord relented. "This will not happen," the Lord said. This is what the Sovereign Lord showed me: The Sovereign Lord was calling for judgment by fire; it dried up the great deep and devoured the land. Then I cried out, "Sovereign Lord, I beg you, stop! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!" So the Lord relented. “This will not happen either,” the Sovereign Lord said. This is what he showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall that had been built true to plumb, with a plumb line in his hand. And the Lord asked me, “What do you see, Amos?” “A plumb line,” I replied. Then the Lord said, “Look, I am setting a plumb line among my people Israel; I will spare them no longer. “The high places of Isaac will be destroyed and the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined; with my sword I will rise against the house of Jeroboam.” - Amos 7:1 – 9

Before becoming a prophet, Amos was a sheep herder and a sycamore fig farmer. His B prior professions and his claim "I am neither a prophet nor a son of a prophet" "I was neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but I was a shepherd, and I also took care of sycamore-fig trees – Amos 7:14. Indicate that Amos was not from the school of prophets, which Amos claims makes him a true prophet. Amos' declaration marks a turning-point in the development of Old Testament prophecy. It is not mere chance that Hosea, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and almost all of the prophets given significant coverage in the Hebrew Bible, give first of all the story of their special calling. All of them seek to protest against the suspicion that they are professional prophets, because the latter discredited themselves by flattering national vanities and ignoring the misdeeds of prominent men. The Bible speaks of his ministry and prophecies concluding around 762, two years before the earthquake that is spoken of in “The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake - Amos 1:1, two years before the earthquake.” The prophet Zechariah was likely alluding to this same earthquake several centuries later: You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. “You will flee as you fled from the earthquake[a] in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the Lord my God will come, and all the holy ones with him - Zechariah 14:5.” And you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, King of Judah.” Though he came from the southern kingdom of Judah, Amos aimed his prophetic message at the northern kingdom of Israel, particularly the cities of Samaria and Bethel. Coming to my life and the ministry, I have seen many people like Amos that how God used them for His great works even though they are not educated and also not from the good backgrounds.

Vision of basket of summer fruit

A Basket of Ripe Fruit: This is what the Sovereign Lord showed me: a basket of ripe fruit. “What do you see, Amos?” he asked. “A basket of ripe fruit,” I answered. Then the Lord said to me, “The time is ripe for my people Israel; I will spare them no longer. “In that day,” declares the Sovereign Lord, “the songs in the temple will turn to wailing. Many, many bodies flung everywhere! Silence!” Hear this, you who trample the needy and do away with the poor of the land, saying, “When will the New Moon be over that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath be ended that we may market wheat?” skimping on the measure, boosting the price and cheating with dishonest scales, buying the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, selling even the sweepings with the wheat - Amos 8:1 - 6

God gave this vision to Amos and told him to proclaim to the Israelites. This was the Great prophesy to the Israelites. Prophet needs the courage to proclaim this prophase. This prophesies are against to the rich people. Even in these days no one can dare to proclaim this kind of prophesies to the rich people.

Coming to my life and the ministry, God gave the privilege to me to proclaim this kind of prophases to the people. Many times my wife and son use to fear for those prophesies, because they fear to the people and to their attacks. As the matter of fact, we faced many attacks through the people because of the prophases they received through me. When they found that those prophesy took place; they feared to the living God.

Vision of red horse to Zechariah

I saw at night, and behold, a man was riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the myrtle trees which were in the ravine, with red, sorrel and white horses behind him -

Zechariah 1:8

Zechariah saw the red horse in his vision. That horse carrying the message to the mankind. We can see the horses in the vision of Apostle John who wrote the Book of Revelation. In that book he revealed the vision which will take place in the end time. In that vision he motioned four horses with different colours with the different message to the mankind. Here we have to notice one thing, the total Bible speaking about the history, how the creation took place and also mentioned how the world is going to end. In this process God used the Old Testament prophets to reveal the things through the visions which will happen in the end times.

Vision of lamp stand to Zechariah

He said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see, and behold, a lamp stand all of gold with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it - Zechariah 4:2

Zechariah saw the lamp stand and its seven lamps. This carries the message to the mankind. We can see the similar visions in the Book of revelation with message to the end times, which are going to happen.

This is the mystery of the seven stars you saw in My right hand and of the seven golden lamp stands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lamp stands are the seven churches. Revelation 1:20

From the throne came flashes of lightning, and rumblings, and peals of thunder, Before the throne burned seven torches of fire. This is the sevenfold Spirit of God. Revelation 4:5

Vision of bronze mountains to Zechariah

Now I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming forth from between the two mountains; and the mountains were bronze mountains - Zechariah

Z echariah saw the two mountains; and the mountains were bronze mountains with message to the mankind to that season and also to the coming generations. We have similar visions to the Daniel by informing the things to happen in the end times.

And into whose hand he has given, wherever they dwell, the children of man, the beasts of the field, and the birds of the heavens, making you rule over them all—you are the head of gold. Another kingdom inferior to you shall arise after you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth. And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron breaks to pieces and shatters all things. And like iron that crushes, it shall break and crush all these - Daniel 2:38 - 40

Warned by God in a dream

And having been warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way - Matthew 2:12

God spoke to the wise men through the dream, not to return to Herod. God knows that what will happen, if they meet Herod. From the beginning God spoke to the people through the dreams and the vision to guide them in the right way.

Coming to my life and the ministry, God spoke to me many times cancel my travels. In one particular time, God told me in the early morning to cancel my American trip. I have to take the flight at 9:00 am. Immediately, I called the travel agent to cancel my ticket. The agent told me that I will lose all the money. I told him, it's not the problem; I must be obedient to God. After one hour he called me again and told that I have not lost my money.

I have many situations like that in my life.

Angel appeared to Joseph in a dream

Now when they had gone, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is going to search for the Child to destroy Him - Matthew 2:13 od spoke to Joseph in the dream, to take the child to the Egypt for the safety of the Gchild, because Herod wants to kill the child. Joseph obeyed to direction of God to take the child to Egypt and stayed there till the God's direction to come back.

Coming to my life and the ministry, many times God guided me like this to escape from the dangers which were waited for me to destroy. I use to go one place to another place all of sudden through the guidance of the God. In the end I use to release that the God's protection for my life.

Suffered greatly in dream

While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him - Matthew 27:19

Pilate's wife had the dream; she sent a message to Pilate, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous Man; for last night I suffered greatly in a dream because of Him.

Here we can see the suffering in the dream. There were many dreams like this in the Bible history. God gave the suffering in the dreams for the plan and purpose of Him.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I had the many dreams like this. Those dreams are the dreams for the self suffering to face the upcoming situations in the life and the ministry.

There were the situations that I was in the heavy cry during that time. The result of the sufferings in the dreams gave the good results for the ministry and the life.

Light from heaven

As he was traveling, it happened that he was approaching Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him - Acts 9:3

ere we can see that light came from the heaven. Paul does not know what's happening.

H By time he noticed that there was a light stricken him, he fall on the ground. That's the light of God. God sent the light from above. We can see this kind of things Bible.

Coming to my life and the ministry, every day in my early morning prayers, I use to have this kind of experience. After going deep in the prayers, all of sudden I found the light from the God. I feel the light around me by that time. It makes me so strong in the spiritual life.

Vision to visit Macedonia

A vision appeared to Paul in the night: a man of Macedonia was standing and appealing to him, and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us - Acts 16:9

ere Paul had the vision to go to the Macedonia. In his vision one man of Macedonia H was standing and appealing to him and saying, Come over to Macedonia and help us.

Paul was the man who depends on the God for every move in his life. Because of this reason, he did the wonderful ministry to reach the people.

Coming to my life and the ministry, this kind of things happened in my travel around the world. During my visits in America, God give the dreams and the visions to go one place to another place according to His purpose. Those visits have very good results reach the un-reached.

Vision for not to afraid

One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: “Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent. For I am with you, and no one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city.” So Paul stayed in Corinth for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God - Acts 18:9

od spoke to Paul not to fear; speak with braveness because that I will be with you.

G Paul was so encouraged with this assurance and did the great ministry in those areas. He stayed there for long time to preach to the people with braveness to bring them to the knowledge of the Jesus Christ. He lost the fear and also was able to teach and preach with the braveness to see the great results in those places.

Vision to get out of Jerusalem quickly

I saw Him saying to me, 'Make haste, and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me - Acts 22:18

God gave the clear direction to Paul to leave the Jerusalem quickly. Here the reason was G that those people do not accept Him. Come to the ministry of Jesus Christ on the face of the earth, there were reasons in deferent areas not to present the gospel and also the wonders of God. “When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had wanted to see him. From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform a sign of some sort - Luke 23:8” Jesus did not performed any wonders there.

Coming to my life and the ministry, there were certain situations, which God asked me, not to preach there and go away from there. Lot of people was unable to understand me in that time. Spiritual things can be judge by the spirit only.

Angel stood before me to protect

Last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me 24 and said, Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you - Acts 27:23 – 24

God sent an angel to speak to Apostle Paul. The angel told him “Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar. God used the angels in the Bible history to consol His servants. Here we can see that God sent an angel to Daniel to encourage “Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them -

Daniel 10:12

Coming to my life and the ministry, I had this kind of experiences in my life. When I was in trouble in woods at America, God sent me an angel to protect me.

Visions and revelations of Paul

Paul's Vision and His Thorn: I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know God knows. And I know that this man whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows was caught up to paradise and heard inexpressible things, things that no one is permitted to tell - 2 Corinthians 12:1 – 4 ere Apostle Paul got the vision and he seeing a person who went to the heaven. That's Hthe great privilege to Paul to see such person. Coming to our generations, one saintly man called Kailas Maharishi who saw this kind of visions an also went into the heaven in the spirit and wrote all of his experience on a book.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I had this kind of experience in my life. I have seen the heaven in the vision. That was the wonderful experience in my life.

Visions to meet help others

Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." And the Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying - Acts 9:10 – 11

Here God gave the vision to Ananias to help Paul to get the vision. He was obedient to the vision of God and went to pray for the Paul. His obedience helped the Paul get the vision.

Coming to my life and the ministry, during my visit to America, I was in the seven days fasting prayers. At the end of my prayers, God spoke to me in the vision to help two Indian pastors by giving each one rupees five thousand. Immediately I called my wife from America and told her to help those two pastors. She sent the help to those pastors.

Vision to Cornelius

Cornelius Sends a Delegation: There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, who gave alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always.

About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, “Cornelius!” And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, “What is it, lord?” So he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God. Now send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter. He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. He will tell you what you must do.” And when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually.

So when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa - Acts 10:1 – 8

Peter's Vision in the noon

Peter's Vision: The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about [e]the sixth hour. Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance and saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth. In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat." But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common or unclean" And a voice spoke to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed you must not call common." This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again - Acts 10:9 - 16

Coming to my life and the ministry, God gave this kind of visions to visit certain people
C to present the gospel to them. This kind of things happened to me even in my visit to the world. In certain situations, I was led by the spirit of God to percent the gospel to the needy people.

Visions from God

God speak face to face

Miriam and Aaron Oppose Moses: Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite. “Has the Lord spoken only through Moses?” they asked. “Hasn’t he also spoken through us?” And the Lord heard this. (Now Moses was a very humble man, more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.) At once the Lord said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, “Come out to the tent of meeting, all three of you.” So the three of them went out. Then the Lord came down in a pillar of cloud; he stood at the entrance to the tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When the two of them stepped forward, he said, “Listen to my words: “When there is a prophet among you, I, the Lord, reveal myself to them in visions, I speak to them in dreams. But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house. With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?” The anger of the Lord burned against them, and he left them. When the cloud lifted from above the tent, Miriam’s skin was leprous it became as white as snow. Aaron turned toward her and saw that she had a defiling skin disease, and he said to Moses, “Please, my lord, I ask you not to hold against us the sin we have so foolishly committed. Do not let her be like a stillborn infant coming from its mother’s womb with its flesh half eaten away.” So Moses cried out to the Lord, “Please, God, heal her!” The Lord replied to Moses, “If her father had spit in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back.” So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back. After that, the people left Hazeroth and encamped in the Desert of Paran.- Numbers 12:1 – 16 od said, “Listen to my words: “When there is a prophet among you, I, the Lord, reveal myself to them in visions, I speak to them in dreams. But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in my entire house. With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?”

God's message to His servants through the vision

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations. For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens. I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant, Thy seed will I establish forever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah. And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints. For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord? God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm. The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them. The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name. Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand. Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted. For the Lord is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king. Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him: With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him. The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him. And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him. But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted. I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation. Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure forever, and his throne as the days of heaven. If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah. But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed. Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin. All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours. Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice. Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle. Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground. The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah. How long, Lord? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire? Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain? What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah. Lord, where are thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth? Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people; Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O Lord; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed. Blessed be the Lord for evermore. Amen, and Amen - Psalm 89

Then thou speaks in vision to thy holy one. I have laid help upon one that is mighty. I have exalted one chosen out of the people. In all seasons God is speaking to His servant and the children to lead them in the right way for His glory. This is not only to David but also to everyone even in these days.

Obedience Heavenly Vision

"So, King Agrippa, I did not prove disobedient to the heavenly vision - Acts 26:19

ere we can see the obedience to the heavenly vision. Apostle Paul all the times H subjected to the vision he got. He was used as the mighty vessel due to his obedience to the call and the vision. Here he is speaking to the king about the vision. When someone speaks like this, there will be the power in the presentation. Apostle Paul was the successful person in his ministry. God gave the great privilege due to the obedience, to write the letters to the churches at that time. Those letters are most useful to the church even in these days. As the matter of fact, if we do not have the letters of the Apostle Paul,
The church do not know how to have the spiritual administration.

Coming to my life and the ministry, God came into my life in the year 1972, from that time onwards; I was so obedient to the call and the vision that God gave me. God fulfilled most the visions effectively to reach the un-reached.

Valley of Vision

The Lord, the Lord Almighty, has a day of tumult and trampling and terror in the Valley of Vision, a day of battering down walls and of crying out to the mountains. Elam takes up the quiver, with her charioteers and horses; Kir uncovers the shield. Your choicest valleys are full of chariots, and horsemen are posted at the city gates. The Lord stripped away the defenses of Judah, and you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest. You saw that the walls of the City of David were broken through in many places; you stored up water in the Lower Pool. You counted the buildings in Jerusalem and tore down houses to strengthen the wall. You built a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the Old Pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, or have regard for the One who planned it long ago. The Lord, the Lord Almighty, called you on that day to weep and to wail, to tear out your hair and put on sackcloth. But see, there is joy and revelry, slaughtering of cattle and killing of sheep, eating of meat and drinking of wine! “Let us eat and drink,” you say, “for tomorrow we die!” The Lord Almighty has revealed this in my hearing: “Till your dying day this sin will not be atoned for,” says the Lord, the Lord Almighty - Isaiah 22:5 - 14

God's word from the wilderness

A Prophecy against Babylon: A prophecy against the Desert by the Sea: Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland, an invader comes from the desert, from a land of terror. A dire vision has been shown to me: The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot. Elam, attack!

Media, lay siege! I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused. At this my body is racked with pain, pangs seize me, like those of a woman in labor; I am staggered by what I hear, I am bewildered by what I see. My heart falters, fear makes me tremble; the twilight I longed for has become a horror to me. They set the tables, they spread the rugs, they eat, they drink! Get up, you officers, oil the shields! This is what the Lord says to me: "Go, post a lookout and have him report what he sees. When he sees chariots with teams of horses, riders on donkeys or riders on camels, let him be alert, fully alert." And the lookout shouted, "Day after day, my lord, I stand on the watchtower; every night I stay at my post. Look, here comes a man in a chariot with a team of horses. And he gives back the answer: 'Babylon has fallen, has fallen! All the images of its gods lie shattered on the ground!'" My people who are crushed on the threshing floor, I tell you what I have heard from the Lord

Almighty, from the God of Israel.- Isaiah 21:1 - 10

Caught in the vision

Idolatry in the Temple: In the sixth year, in the sixth month on the fifth day, while I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, the hand of the Sovereign Lord came on me there. I looked, and I saw a figure like that of a man. From what appeared to be his waist down he was like fire, and from there up his appearance was as bright as glowing metal. He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and in visions of God he took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes to jealousy stood. And there before me was the glory of the God of Israel, as in the vision I had seen in the plain. Then he said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” So I looked, and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this idol of jealousy. And he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the utterly detestable things the Israelites are doing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see things that are even more detestable.” Then he brought me to the entrance to the court. I looked, and I saw a hole in the wall. He said to me, “Son of man, now dig into the wall.” So I dug into the wall and saw a doorway there. And he said to me, “Go in and see the wicked and detestable things they are doing here.” So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls all kinds of crawling things and unclean animals and all the idols of Israel. - Ezekiel 8:1 - 10

Brought me in the vision

The Temple Area Restored: In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the fall of the city on that very day the hand of the Lord was on me and he took me there. In visions of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose south sides were some buildings that looked like a city. He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze; he was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. The man said to me, “Son of man, look carefully and listen closely and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Tell the people of Israel everything you see - Ezekiel 40:1 - 4

Visions were like the vision

God's Glory Returns to the Temple: Then the man brought me to the gate facing east, and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory. The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when he came to destroy the city and like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell facedown. The glory of the Lord entered the temple through the gate facing east. Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. He said: "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. The people of Israel will never again defile my holy name neither they nor their kings by their prostitution and the funeral offerings for their kings at their death. When they placed their threshold next to my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they defiled my holy name by their detestable practices. So I destroyed them in my anger. Now let them put away from me their prostitution and the funeral offerings for their kings, and I will live among them forever. “Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider its perfection, and if they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple its arrangement, its exits and entrances its whole design and all its regulations and laws. Write these down before them so that they may be faithful to its design and follow all its regulations. “This is the law of the temple: All the surrounding area on top of the mountain will be most holy. Such is the law of the temple - Ezekiel 43:1 – 12

Great Vision

Daniel's Vision of a Man: In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel (who was called Belteshazzar). Its message was true and it concerned a great war. The understanding of the message came to him in a vision. At that time I, Daniel, mourned for three weeks. I ate no choice food; no meat or wine touched my lips; and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over. On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, I looked up and there before me was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist. His body was like topaz, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a multitude. I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; those who were with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves. So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision; I had no strength left, my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless. Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, my face to the ground. A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. He said, "Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you." And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling. Then he continued, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia. Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come." While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face toward the ground and was speechless. Then one who looked like a man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak. I said to the one standing before me, "I am overcome with anguish because of the vision, my lord, and I feel very weak. How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe." Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength. "Do not be afraid, you who are highly esteemed," he said. "Peace! Be strong now; be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength.” So he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come; but first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth.

No one supports me against them except Michael, your prince.- Daniel 10:1 - 21

Fulfill the vision

The Kings of the South and the North: “Now then, I tell you the truth: Three more kings will arise in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power by his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases. After he has arisen, his empire will be broken up and parceled out toward the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the power he exercised, because his empire will be uprooted and given to others. “The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power. After some years, they will become allies. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an alliance, but she will not retain her power, and he and his power will not last. In those days she will be betrayed, together with her royal escort and her father and the one who supported her. "One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious. He will also seize their gods, their metal images and their valuable articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt. For some years he will leave the king of the North alone. Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will retreat to his own country. His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will sweep on like an irresistible flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress. "Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be defeated. When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter many thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant. For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a huge army fully equipped. "In those times many will rise against the king of the South. Those who are violent among your own people will rebel in fulfillment of the vision, but without success. Then the king of the North will come and build up siege ramps and will capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their best troops will not have the strength to stand. The invader will do as he pleases; no one will be able to stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it. He will determine to come with the might of his entire kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. And he will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him. Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and will take many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back on him. After this, he will turn back toward the fortresses of his own country but will stumble and fall, to be seen no more. “His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendor. In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle. “He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honor of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue. Then an overwhelming army will be swept away before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed. After coming to an agreement with him, he will act deceitfully, and with only a few people he will rise to power. When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them and will achieve what neither his father’s nor his forefathers did. He will distribute plunder, loot and wealth among his followers. He will plot the overthrow of fortresses but only for a time. “With a large army he will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will wage war with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to stand because of the plots devised against him. Those who eat from the king’s provisions will try to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle. The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but to no avail, because an end will still come at the appointed time. The king of the North will return to his own country with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action against it and then return to his own country. “At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different from what it was before. Ships of the western coastlands will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant. “His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation. With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist him. “Those who are wise will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered. When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere will join them. Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time - Daniel 11:1 – 35

The Interpretation of the Vision

The Interpretation of the Vision: While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man. And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai calling, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision." As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell prostrate. "Son of man," he said to me, "understands that the vision concerns the time of the end." While he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep, with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and raised me to my feet. He said: "I am going to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time of the end. The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia. The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king. The four horns that replaced the one that was broken off represent four kingdoms that will emerge from his nation but will not have the same power. “In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a fierce-looking king, a master of intrigue, will arise. He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy those who are mighty, the holy people. He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure, he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power. “The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given you is true, but seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future.” I, Daniel, was worn out. I lay exhausted for several days. Then I got up and went about the king’s business. I was appalled by the vision; it was beyond understanding -Daniel 8:15 – 27

Vision to make an end of sin

The Seventy “Sevens”: While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request to the Lord my God for his holy hill while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice. He instructed me and said to me, “Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding. As soon as you began to pray, a word went out, which I have come to tell you, for you are highly esteemed. Therefore, consider the word and understand the vision: “Seventy ‘sevens’ are decreed for your people and your holy city to finish transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy and to anoint the Most Holy Place. “Know and understand this: From the time the word goes out to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One, the ruler, comes, there will be seven ‘sevens,’ and sixty-two ‘sevens.’ It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble. After the sixty-two ‘sevens,’ the Anointed One will be put to death and will have nothing. The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood: War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed. He will confirm a covenant with many for one ‘seven.’ In the middle of the ‘seven’ he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And at the temple he will set up an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him - Daniel 9:20 – 27

Vision to reveal on right time

As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man has risen from the dead - Matthew 17:9

ere we can see that the Jesus gave the clear instructions to the disciples to not to reveal H the vision till the resurrection of Him. Sometimes the visions that God gave to the prophets were not for that season. God gave those visions, regarding the end time, which will happen in the future.

Coming to my life and the ministry, many times I faced this kind of things. Certain visions that God gave me were not for those days. They were revealed in the later days, sometimes after some years.

Vision of angels

And did not find His body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said that He was alive - Luke 24:23

Here some people were saw the angels. Those angels gave the message to them that He was alive. If we go through the Bible history, we can see this kind of things happened many times. God sent the message to the people through the angels.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I had this kind of experiences in the life. When I was in the dilemma to take certain desiccations in my life towards the ministry, God spoke to me through the angels to guide me in the right way to do the effective ministry to reach the unreached.

Vision for the multitudes

The End Has Come: The word of the Lord came to me: “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord says to the land of Israel: “‘The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land! The end is now upon you, and I will unleash my anger against you. I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices. I will not look on you with pity; I will not spare you. I will surely repay you for your conduct and for the detestable practices among you. “‘Then you will know that I am the Lord. “This is what the Sovereign Lord says: “‘Disaster! Unheard-of[a] disaster! See, it comes! The end has come! The end has come! It has roused itself against you. See, it comes! Doom has come upon you, upon you who dwell in the land. The time has come! The day is near!

There is panic, not joy, on the mountains. I am about to pour out my wrath on you and spend my anger against you. I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices. I will not look on you with pity; I will not spare you. I will repay you for your conduct and for the detestable practices among you. “Then you will know that it is I the Lord who strikes you. “See, the day! See, it comes! Doom has burst forth, the rod has budded, and arrogance has blossomed! Violence has arisen, a rod to punish the wicked. None of the people will be left, none of that crowd none of their wealth, nothing of value. The time has come! The day has arrived! Let not the buyer rejoice nor the seller grieve, for my wrath is on the whole crowd. The seller will not recover the property that was sold as long as both buyer and seller live. For the vision concerning the whole crowd will not be reversed. Because of their sins, not one of them will preserve their life - Ezekiel 7:1 - 13

Visions of God

Ladder in the Jacob's dream

Jacob's Dream at Bethel: Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Harran. When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep. He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. There above it stood the Lord, and he said: "I am the Lord, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying. Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.” When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, “Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware of it.” He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven.” Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it. He called that place Bethel, though the city used to be called Luz. Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear so that I return safely to my father’s household, then the Lord will be my God and this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be God’s house, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth - Gen 28:10 - 22

Appearance of God in Vision

Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel went up 10 and saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made of lapis lazuli, as bright blue as the sky. 11 But God did not raise his hand against these leaders of the Israelites; they saw God, and they ate and drank - Exodus 24:9 - 10

God gave the privilege to the Israelites to see him. God revealed himself to the people
G then and there where the need was there to strengthen them and edifying them to stand for Him as the living vessels. When we came to New Testament, God himself appeared to the people to use them. Because of this reason He called the gentiles to accept Him as their personal savior and also to reach the un-reached. Basing on this, He also called me from the gentile background to reach the un-reach around the world.

Moses saw God from back side

Moses and the Glory of the Lord: Moses said to the Lord, “You have been telling me, ‘Lead these people,’ but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, ‘I know you by name and you have found favor with me.’ If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favor with you. Remember that this nation is your people.” The Lord replied, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” Then Moses said to him, “If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here. How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?” And the Lord said to Moses, “I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name.” Then Moses said, “Now show me your glory.” And the Lord said, “I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the Lord, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. But,” he said, “you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live.” Then the Lord said, “There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen”- Exodus 33:12 - 23

Micaiah saw God on throne

Micaiah continued, “Therefore hear the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne with all the multitudes of heaven standing on his right and on his left. And the Lord said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death there?’ “One suggested this, and another that. Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the Lord and said, ‘I will entice him.’ ““By what means?’ the Lord asked. ““I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouths of all his prophets,’ he said. ““You will succeed in enticing him,’ said the Lord. ‘Go and do it.’ “So now the Lord has put a deceiving spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours. The Lord has decreed disaster for you.” Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped Micaiah in the face. “Which way did the spirit from[a] the Lord go when he went from me to speak to you?” he asked. Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room.” The king of Israel then ordered, “Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king’s son, and say, ‘This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.’” Micaiah declared, “If you ever return safely, the Lord has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Mark my words, all you people!” - 2 Chronicles 18:18 - 27

Isaiah saw the God in the vision

Isaiah's Commission: In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying and they were calling to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory." At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty." Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. 7 With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for." - Isaiah 6:1 – 7

Likeness of a throne

Then there came a voice from above the vault over their heads as they stood with lowered wings. Above the vault over their heads was what looked like a throne of lapis lazuli, and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man. I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him. Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the Lord. When I saw it, I fell facedown and I heard the voice of one speaking - Ezekiel 1:25 - 28

Similar vision

God's Glory Departs from the Temple: I looked, and I saw the likeness of a throne of lapis lazuli above the vault that was over the heads of the cherubim. The Lord said to the man clothed in linen, "Go in among the wheels beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And as I watched, he went in. Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court. Then the glory of the Lord rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of the Lord. The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far away as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks - Ezekiel 10:1 - 5

Thrones were cast down

Daniel's Dream of Four Beasts: In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was lying in bed. He wrote down the substance of his dream. Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven churning up the great sea. Four great beasts, each different from the others, came up out of the sea. "The first was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground so that it stood on two feet like a human being, and the mind of a human was given to it. "And there before me was a second beast, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Get up and eat your fill of flesh!’ “After that, I looked, and there before me was another beast, one that looked like a leopard. And on its back it had four wings like those of a bird. This beast had four heads, and it was given authority to rule. “After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns. “While I was thinking about the horns, there before me was another horn, a little one, which came up among them; and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like the eyes of a human being and a mouth that spoke boastfully. “As I looked, “thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was as white as snow; the hair of his head was white like wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all

ablaze. - Daniel 7:1 - 9

Stephen saw Jesus in the vision

The Stoning of Stephen: When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they were furious and gnashed their teeth at him. But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. “Look,” he said, “I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.” At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him, dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” Then he fell on his knees and cried out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” When he had said this, he fell asleep - Acts 7:54 - 60

Throne was set in heaven

The Throne in Heaven: After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.” At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it. And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and ruby. A rainbow that shone like an emerald encircled the throne. Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had crowns of gold on their heads. From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder. In front of the throne, seven lamps were blazing. These are the seven spirits of God. Also in front of the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back. The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle. Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under its wings. Day and night they never stop saying: “‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,’ who was, and is, and is to come.”- Revelation 4:1 - 8

Prophetic Visions

Vision helps to live

Where there is no vision, the people are unrestrained, but happy is he who keeps the law -

Proverbs 29:18

This is very important thing for the mankind. There must be the vision for the God's people to live to please the living God. We can see many people in the Bible history those who failed in their lives due to, "There no vision for them."

Coming to my life and the ministry, I met a pastor and his wife who are doing the church ministry. While we are talking, I asked them, what is your vision, they asked me what is the vision? Then I understood where they are in the spiritual life.

Harsh vision

A Prophecy against Babylon: A prophecy against the Desert by the Sea: Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland, an invader comes from the desert, from a land of terror. A dire vision has been shown to me: The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot. Elam, attack! Media, lay siege! I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused. At this my body is racked with pain, pangs seize me, like those of a woman in labor; I am staggered by what I hear, I am bewildered by what I see. My heart falters, fear makes me tremble; the twilight

I longed for has become a horror to me.- Isaiah 21: 1 - 4

ere we can see the harsh vision that God gave to the prophet regarding the Babylon.

H This vision is speaking about the things which will take place in the end times that is the day of the Lord. God revealed the things to take place through the prophets. If we go through the book revelation, the entire book speaks about the day of the lord in detail.

Vision for temple

The River from the Temple: The man brought me back to the entrance to the temple, and I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar. He then brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was trickling from the south side. As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits and then led me through water that was ankle-deep. He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist. He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in a river that no one could cross. He asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?” Then he led me back to the bank of the river. When I arrived there, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river. He said to me, “This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah, where it enters the Dead Sea. When it empties into the sea, the salty water there becomes fresh. Swarms of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live. Fishermen will stand along the shore; from En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea. But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt. Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.” - Ezekiel 47:1 – 12

Belshazzar's vision

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat: In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me. In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa in the province of Elam; in the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal. I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal, and the horns were long. One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later. I watched the ram as it charged toward the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became great. As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground. It came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at it in great rage. I saw it attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it; the goat knocked it to the ground and trampled on it, and none could rescue the ram from its power. The goat became very great, but at the height of its power the large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven. Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and toward the Beautiful Land. It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them. It set itself up to be as great as the commander of the army of the Lord; it took away the daily sacrifice from the Lord, and his sanctuary was thrown down. Because of rebellion, the Lord's people[a] and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did, and truth was thrown to the ground. Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, the surrender of the sanctuary and the trampling underfoot of the Lord's people?" He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated."- Daniel 8:1 - 14

Visions concerning Israel

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors: This is what the Lord says: "For three sins of Damascus, even for four, I will not relent. Because she threshed Gilead with sledges having iron teeth I will send fire on the house of Hazael that will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad. I will break down the gate of Damascus; I will destroy the king who is in[b] the Valley of Aven and the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into exile to Kir," says the Lord. This is what the Lord says: "For three sins of Gaza, even for four, I will not relent. Because she took captive whole communities and sold them to Edom, I will send fire on the walls of Gaza that will consume her fortresses. I will destroy the king[d] of Ashdod and the one who holds the scepter in Ashkelon. I will turn my hand against Ekron, till the last of the Philistines are dead,” says the Sovereign Lord. This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Tyre, even for four, I will not relent. Because she sold whole communities of captives to Edom, disregarding a treaty of brotherhood, I will send fire on the walls of Tyre that will consume her fortresses.” This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Edom, even for four, I will not relent. Because he pursued his brother with a sword and slaughtered the women of the land, because his anger raged continually and his fury flamed unchecked, I will send fire on Teman that will consume the fortresses of Bozrah.” This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Ammon, even for four, I will not relent. Because he ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead in order to extend his borders, I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah that will consume her fortresses amid war cries on the day of battle,amid violent winds on a stormy day. Her king will go into exile, he and his officials together,” says the Lord.- Amos 1:3 – 15

Vision concerning the Edom

Obadiah's Vision: The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Sovereign Lord says about Edom we have heard a message from the Lord: An envoy was sent to the nations to say, "Rise, let us go against her for battle" "See, I will make you small among the nations; you will be utterly despised. The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks and make your home on the heights, you who say to yourself, 'Who can bring me down to the ground?' Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down," declares the Lord - Obadiah 1:1 - 4

Book of vision

A prophecy concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. The Lord's Anger Against Nineveh. The Lord is a jealous and avenging God; the Lord takes vengeance and is filled with wrath. The Lord takes vengeance on his foes and vents his wrath against his enemies. The Lord is slow to anger but great in power; the Lord will not leave the guilty unpunished. His way is in the whirlwind and the storm, and clouds are the dust of his feet. He rebukes the sea and dries it up; he makes all the rivers run dry. Bashan and Carmel wither and the blossoms of Lebanon fade. The mountains quake before him and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, the world and all who live in it. Who can withstand his indignation? Who can endure his fierce anger? His wrath is poured out like fire; the rocks are shattered before him. The Lord is good, a refuge in times of trouble. He cares for those who trust in him, but with an overwhelming flood he will make an end of Nineveh; he will pursue his foes into the realm of darkness. Whatever they plot against the Lord he will bring to an end; trouble will not come a second time. They will be entangled among thorns and drunk from their wine; they will be consumed like dry stubble. From you, Nineveh, has one come forth who plots evil against the Lord and devises wicked plans. This is what the Lord says: “Although they have allies and are numerous, they will be destroyed and pass away. Although I have afflicted you, Judah, I will afflict you no more. Now I will break their yoke from your neck and tear your shackles away.” The Lord has given a command concerning you, Nineveh: “You will have no descendants to bear your name. I will destroy the images and idols that are in the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave, for you are vile.” Look, there on the mountains, the feet of one who brings good news, who proclaims peace! Celebrate your festivals, Judah, and fulfill your vows. No more will the wicked invade you; they will be completely destroyed - Nahum Hezekiah's Pride, Success and Death: In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to the Lord, who answered him and gave him a miraculous sign.

But Hezekiah's heart was proud and he did not respond to the kindness shown him; therefore the Lord's wrath was on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. Then Hezekiah repented of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the Lord's wrath did not come on them during the days of Hezekiah. Hezekiah had very great wealth and honor, and he made treasuries for his silver and gold and for his precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuables. He also made buildings to store the harvest of grain, new wine and olive oil; and he made stalls for various kinds of cattle, and pens for the flocks. He built villages and acquired great numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given him very great riches. It was Hezekiah who blocked the upper outlet of the Gihon spring and channeled the water down to the west side of the City of David. He succeeded in everything he undertook. But when envoys were sent by the rulers of Babylon to ask him about the miraculous sign that had occurred in the land, God left him to test him and to know everything that was in his heart. The other events of Hezekiah's reign and his acts of devotion are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. Hezekiah rested with his ancestors and was buried on the hill where the tombs of David's descendants are. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him when he died. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king - 2 Chronicles (Hosea 12:3).

Numerous visions

Ephraim feeds on the wind; he pursues the east wind all day and multiplies lies and violence. He makes a treaty with Assyria and sends olive oil to Egypt. The Lord has a charge to bring against Judah; he will punish Jacob according to his ways and repay him according to his deeds. In the womb he grasped his brother's heel; as a man he struggled with God. He struggled with the angel and overcame him; he wept and begged for his favor. He found him at Bethel and talked with him there the Lord God Almighty, the Lord is his name! But you must return to your God; maintain love and justice, and wait for your God always. The merchant uses dishonest scales and loves to defraud. Ephraim boasts, “I am very rich; I have become wealthy. With all my wealth they will not find in me any iniquity or sin.” “I have been the Lord your God ever since you came out of Egypt; I will make you live in tents again, as in the days of your appointed festivals. I spoke to the prophets, gave them many visions and told parables through them.” Is Gilead wicked? Its people are worthless! Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal? Their altars will be like piles of stones on a plowed field. Jacob fled to the country of Aram; Israel served to get a wife, and to pay for her he tended sheep. The Lord used a prophet to bring Israel up from Egypt, by a prophet he cared for him. But Ephraim has aroused his bitter anger; his Lord will leave on him the guilt of his bloodshed and will repay him for his contempt - Hosea 12:10

Vision Samaria and Jerusalem

Judgment Against Samaria and Jerusalem: Look! The Lord is coming from his dwelling place; he comes down and treads on the heights of the earth. The mountains melt beneath him and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like water rushing down a slope. All this is because of Jacob's transgression, because of the sins of the people of Israel. What is Jacob's transgression? Is it not Samaria? What is Judah's high place? Is it not Jerusalem? "Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of rubble, a place for planting vineyards. I will pour her stones into the valley and lay bare her foundations. All her idols will be broken to pieces; all her temple gifts will be burned with fire; I will destroy all her images. Since she gathered her gifts from the wages of prostitutes, as the wages of prostitutes they will again be used." - Micah 1:3 – 7

How did God use dreams and visions?

Visions are waking dreams

He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open - Numbers 24:4

Several times in the Bible to communicate with people. Visions seem to have been common enough that their lack was sorely noted

An absence of visions was due at times to a dearth of prophets - 1 Samuel 3:1
other times due to the disobedience of God's people - 1 Samuel 28:6

Old Testament Dreams and Visions

God used visions in the Old Testament to reveal His plan, to further His plan, and to put His people in places of influence.

Abraham

God used a vision to restate the Abraham Covenant, reminding Abram that he would have a son and be the father of many nations.

“After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, 'Do not fear, Abram, I am a shield to you; Your reward shall be very great.'” - Genesis 15:1

Abimelech

Abraham's wife, Sarah, was beautiful so beautiful that when Abraham came into a new area he occasionally feared that the local ruler would kill him and take Sarah for himself. Abraham told Abimelech king of Gerar that Sarah was his sister (she was his half-sister). Abimelech took Sarah into his harem, but God sent him a dream telling him not to touch Sarah because she was Abraham's wife. The king returned Sarah to her husband the next morning; the dream had protected Sarah and safeguarded God's plan for Sarah to be the mother of His chosen people.

Now Abraham moved on from there into the region of the Negev and lived between Kadesh and Shur. For a while he stayed in Gerar, and there Abraham said of his wife Sarah, “She is my sister.” Then Abimelek king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her. But God came to Abimelek in a dream one night and said to him, “You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken; she is a married woman.” Now Abimelek had not gone near her, so he said, “Lord, will you destroy an innocent nation? Did he not say to me, ‘She is my sister,’ and didn’t she also say, ‘He is my brother’? I have done this with a clear conscience and clean hands.” Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know you did this with a clear conscience, and so I have kept you from sinning against me. That is why I did not let you touch her. Now return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, you may be sure that you and all who belong to you will die - Genesis 20:1 - 7

Jacob

Jacob, with his mother's help, stole Esau's firstborn inheritance. Jacob then fled Esau's anger, and on his journey he had his famous dream of a ladder reaching to heaven on which angels ascended and descended. In this dream Jacob received God's promise that Abraham's blessing would be carried on through him.

Jacob's Dream at Bethel

Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Harran. When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep. He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. There above it stood the Lord, and he said: “I am the Lord, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying. Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.” When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, “Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware of it.” He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven - Genesis

28:10 – 17

Joseph

Joseph is one of the most famous dreamers and one of the most famous dream-Jinterpreters, in the Bible. His first recorded dreams are found in Genesis 37. They showed through easily deciphered symbols that Joseph's family would one day bow to him in respect. His brothers didn't appreciate the dream and in their hatred sold Joseph into slavery. Eventually, Joseph ended up in prison in Egypt.

Joseph's Dreams

Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan. This is the account of Jacob's family line. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made an ornate robe for him. When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him. Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more. He said to them, “Listen to this dream I had: We were binding sheaves of grain out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered around mine and bowed down to it.” His brothers said to him, “Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?” And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said. Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. “Listen,” he said, “I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me.” When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, “What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?” His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind - Genesis 37:1 - 11

Pharaoh's cupbearer and baker

While in prison Joseph interpreted some dreams of Pharaoh's cupbearer and baker. With God's guidance, he explained that the cupbearer would return to Pharaoh's service, but the baker would be killed.

The Cupbearer and the Baker

Sometime later, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt. Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined. The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them.

After they had been in custody for some time, each of the two men the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own. When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected. So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why do you look so sad today?" "We both had dreams," they answered, "but there is no one to interpret them." Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams." So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream. He said to him, "In my dream I saw a vine in front of me, and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes. Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in his hand." "This is what it means," Joseph said to him. "The three branches are three days. Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer. But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison. I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon." When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given a favorable interpretation, he said to Joseph, "I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets of bread. In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.” “This is what it means,” Joseph said. “The three baskets are three days. Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and impale your body on a pole. And the birds will eat away your flesh.” Now the third day was Pharaoh’s birthday, and he gave a feast for all his officials. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of his officials: He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand but he impaled the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation. The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him - Genesis 40

Pharaoh

Two years later, Pharaoh himself had a dream which Joseph interpreted. God's purpose was to raise Joseph to second-in-command over Egypt and to save the Egyptians and the Israelites from a horrible famine.

Pharaoh's Dreams

When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile, when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds.

After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank. And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up. He fell asleep again and had a second dream: Seven heads of grain, healthy and good, were growing on a single stalk. After them, seven other heads of grain sprouted thin and scorched by the east wind. The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy, full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up; it had been a dream. In the morning his mind was troubled, so he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for him. Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "Today I am reminded of my shortcomings. Pharaoh was once angry with his servants, and he imprisoned me and the chief baker in the house of the captain of the guard. Each of us had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own. Now a young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us, giving each man the interpretation of his dream. And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was impaled." So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was quickly brought from the dungeon. When he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came before Pharaoh. Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and no one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it." "I cannot do it," Joseph replied to Pharaoh, "but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires." Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile, when out of the river there came up seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds. After them, seven other cows came up scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt. The lean, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first. But even after they ate them, no one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I woke up. "In my dream I saw seven heads of grain, full and good, growing on a single stalk. After them, seven other heads sprouted withered and thin and scorched by the east wind. The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads.

I told this to the magicians, but none of them could explain it to me.” Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do. The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads of grain are seven years; it is one and the same dream. The seven lean, ugly cows that came up afterward are seven years, and so are the seven worthless heads of grain scorched by the east wind: They are seven years of famine. “It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do. Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt, but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land. The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe. The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and God will do it soon. “And now let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt. Let Pharaoh appoint commissioners over the land to take a fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance. They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and store up the grain under the authority of Pharaoh, to be kept in the cities for food. This food should be held in reserve for the country, to be used during the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine.” The plan seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his officials. So Pharaoh asked them, “Can we find anyone like this man, one in whom is the spirit of God. Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one so discerning and wise as you. You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people are to submit to your orders. Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you.”

Joseph in Charge of Egypt

So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt.” Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph’s finger. He dressed him in robes of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck. He had him ride in a chariot as his second-in-command, and people shouted before him, “Make way!” Thus he put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt. Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, but without your word no one will lift hand or foot in all Egypt.” Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph went throughout the land of Egypt. Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh’s presence and traveled throughout Egypt. During the seven years of abundance the land produced plentifully. Joseph collected all the food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt and stored it in the cities. In each city he put the food grown in the fields surrounding it. Joseph stored up huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea; it was so much that he stopped keeping records because it was beyond measure. Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh[e] and said, “It is because God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s household.” The second son he named Ephraim[f] and said, “It is because God has made me fruitful in the land of my suffering.”

The seven years of abundance in Egypt came to an end, and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food. When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph and do what he tells you.” When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt. And all the world came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe everywhere - Genesis 41

Samuel had his first vision as a young boy. God told him that judgment was coming upon the sons of Samuel's mentor, Eli. The young Samuel was faithful to relay the information, and God continued to speak to Samuel through the rest of his life.

The Lord Calls Samuel

The boy Samuel ministered before the Lord under Eli. In those days the word of the Lord was rare; there were not many visions. One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place. The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the house of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am." And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down. Again the Lord called, “Samuel!” And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” “My son,” Eli said, “I did not call; go back and lie down.” Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord: The word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. A third time the Lord called, “Samuel!” And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, “Here I am; you called me.” Then Eli realized that the Lord was calling the boy. So Eli told Samuel, “Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, ‘Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place. The Lord came and stood there, calling as at the other times, “Samuel! Samuel!” Then Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.” And the Lord said to Samuel: “See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears about it tingle. At that time I will carry out against Eli everything I spoke against his family from beginning to end. For I told him that I would judge his family forever because of the sin he knew about; his sons blasphemed God, and he failed to restrain them. Therefore I swore to the house of Eli, ‘The guilt of Eli’s house will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.’” Samuel lay down until morning and then opened the doors of the house of the Lord. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision, but Eli called him and said, “Samuel, my son.” Samuel answered, “Here I am.” “What was it he said to you?” Eli asked. “Do not hide it from me. May God deal with you, be it ever so severely, if you hide from me anything he told you.” So Samuel told him everything, hiding nothing from him. Then Eli said, “He is the Lord; let him do what is good in his eyes.” The Lord was with Samuel as he grew up, and he let none of Samuel’s words fall to the ground. And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba recognized that Samuel was attested as a prophet of the Lord. The Lord continued to appear at Shiloh, and there he revealed himself to Samuel through his word - 1 Samuel 3

The Midianite and Amalekite armies

The pagan enemies of Israel had a divinely inspired dream. God told Gideon to sneak into the enemy camp at night, and there in the outposts of the camp, Gideon overheard an enemy soldier relate a dream he had just had. The interpretation, from another enemy soldier, mentioned Gideon by name and predicted that Israel would win the battle. Gideon was greatly encouraged by this revelation. And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the East lay along the valley like locusts in abundance, and their camels were without number, as the sand that is on the seashore in abundance. When Gideon came, behold, a man was telling a dream to his comrade. And he said, “Behold, I dreamed a dream, and behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian and came to the tent and struck it so that it fell and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat.” And his comrade answered, “This is no other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given into his hand Midian and all the camp.” As soon as Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped. And he returned to the camp of Israel and said, “Arise, for the Lord has given the host of Midian into your hand -

Judges 7:12 - 15

Solomon

It was in a dream that God gave Solomon the famous offer: "Ask what you wish Me to give you." Solomon chose wisdom.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom: Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and married his daughter. He brought her to the City of David until he finished building his palace and the temple of the Lord, and the wall around Jerusalem. The people, however, were still sacrificing at the high places, because a temple had not yet been built for the Name of the Lord. Solomon showed his love for the Lord by walking according to the instructions given him by his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places. The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you." Solomon answered, "You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son to sit on his throne this very day. "Now, Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties. Your servant is here among the people you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to count or number. So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?" The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this. So God said to him, "Since you have asked for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment in administering justice, I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be. Moreover, I will give you what you have not asked for both wealth and honor so that in your lifetime you will have no equal among kings. And if you walk in obedience to me and keep my decrees and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life." Then Solomon awoke and he realized it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord's covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he gave a feast for all his court - 1

Kings 3: 1 -15

Daniel

As He had done for Joseph, God placed Daniel in a position of power and influence by allowing him to interpret a foreign ruler's dream. This is consistent with God's propensity to use miracles to identify His messengers. Daniel himself had many dreams and visions, mostly related to future kingdoms of the world and the nation of Israel.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; his mind was troubled and he could not sleep. So the king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers and astrologers to tell him what he had dreamed. When they came in and stood before the king, he said to them, “I have had a dream that troubles me and I want to know what it means. Then the astrologers answered the king, “May the king live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it.” The king replied to the astrologers, “This is what I have firmly decided: If you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut into pieces and your houses turned into piles of rubble. But if you tell me the dream and explain it, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and interpret it for me.” Once more they replied, “Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it.” Then the king answered, “I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you realize that this is what I have firmly decided: If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one penalty for you. You have conspired to tell me misleading and wicked things, hoping the situation will change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can interpret it for me.” The astrologers answered the king, “There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks! No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer. What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among humans.” This made the king so angry and furious that he ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon. So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death. When Arioch, the commander of the king’s guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon, Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact. He asked the king’s officer, “Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?” Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel. At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.

Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision.

Then Daniel praised the God of heaven and said: “Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever; wisdom and power are his. He changes times and seasons; he deposes kings and raises up others. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning. He reveals deep and hidden things; he knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with him. I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors: You have given me wisdom and power, you have made known to me what we asked of you, you have made known to us the dream of the king.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him.” Arioch took Daniel to the king at once and said, “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means.” The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar), “Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?” Daniel replied, “No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about, but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come. Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind as you were lying in bed are these: “As Your Majesty was lying there, your mind turned to things to come, and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen. As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have greater wisdom than anyone else alive, but so that Your Majesty may know the interpretation and that you may understand what went through your mind. “Your Majesty looked, and there before you stood a large statue—an enormous, dazzling statue, awesome in appearance. The head of the statue was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay. While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were all broken to pieces and became like chaff on a threshing floor in the summer. The windswept them away without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain and filled the whole earth. “This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king. Your Majesty, you are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion and power and might and glory; in your hands he has placed all mankind and the beasts of the field and the birds in the sky. Wherever they live, he has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold. “After you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth. Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron for iron breaks and smashes everything and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others. Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay. As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay. “In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever. This is the meaning of the vision of the rock cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands—a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces. “The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy.” Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel and paid him honor and ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him. The king said to Daniel, “Surely your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this mystery.” Then the king placed Daniel in a high position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men. Moreover, at Daniel’s request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego administrators over the province of Babylon, while Daniel himself remained at the royal court - Daniel 2

New Testament Dreams and Visions

Visions in the New Testament also served to provide information that was unavailable elsewhere. Specifically, God used visions and dreams to identify Jesus and to establish His church.

Zacharias

God used a vision to tell Zacharias, an old priest, that he would soon have an important son. Not long after, Zacharias and his wife, Elizabeth, had John the Baptist

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold: In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah; his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron. Both of them were righteous in the sight of God, observing all the Lord's commands and decrees blamelessly. But they were childless because Elizabeth was not able to conceive, and they were both very old. Once when Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshipers were praying outside. Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear. But the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to call him John. He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth, for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He is never to take wine or other fermented drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even before he is born. He will bring back many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God. And he will go on before the Lord, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the parents to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.” Zechariah asked the angel, “How can I be sure of this? I am an old man and my wife is well along in years.” The angel said to him, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. And now you will be silent and not able to speak until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their appointed time.” Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple. When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak. When his time of service was completed, he returned home.-

Luke 1:5 - 23

Joseph N.T

Joseph would have divorced Mary when he found out she was pregnant, but God sent an Jangel to him in a dream, convincing him that the pregnancy was of God. Joseph went ahead with the marriage. After Jesus was born, God sent two more dreams, one to tell Joseph to take his family to Egypt so Herod could not kill Jesus and another to tell him Herod was dead and that he could return home.

The Escape to Egypt: When they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. “Get up,” he said, “take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to kill him.” - Matthew 2:13

But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit - Matthew 1:20

uring Jesus' trial, Pilate's wife sent an urgent message to the governor encouraging him to free Jesus. Her message was prompted by a dream she had a nightmare, really that convinced her that Jesus was innocent and that Pilate should have nothing to do with His case.

While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him." - Matthew 27:19

Ananias

It would have taken nothing less than a vision from God to convince Ananias, a Christian in Damascus, to visit Paul, the persecutor of Christians. But because Ananias was obedient to God's leading, Paul regained his sight and found the truth about those he was trying to kill.

In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, “Ananias!” “Yes, Lord,” he answered. The Lord told him, “Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight.” “Lord,” Ananias answered, “I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your holy people in Jerusalem. And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name.” But the Lord said to Ananias, “Go! This man is my chosen instrument to proclaim my name to the Gentiles and their kings and to the people of Israel. I will show him how much he must suffer for my name.” Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength -Acts 9:10 - 19

God spoke to an Italian centurion named Cornelius who feared the God of the Jews. In his vision, Cornelius saw an angel who told him where to find Simon Peter and to send for him and listen to his message. Cornelius obeyed the vision, Peter came and preached, and Cornelius and his household full of Gentiles were saved by the grace of God.

Cornelius Calls for Peter: At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, “Cornelius!” Cornelius stared at him in fear. “What is it, Lord?” he asked. The angel answered, “Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God. Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter. He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea.” - Acts

Peter

While Peter was praying on the rooftop of a house in Joppa, God gave him a vision of animals lowered in something like a sheet. A voice from heaven told Peter to kill the animals (some of which were unclean) and eat them. The vision served to show that Christians are not bound by kosher law and that God had pronounced Gentiles “clean”; that is, heaven is open to all who follow Jesus

Peter's Vision: About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles and birds. Then a voice told him, “Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.” “Surely not, Lord!” Peter replied. “I have never eaten anything impure or unclean.” The voice spoke to him a second time, “Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.” - Acts 10:9 - 15

Paul

Paul had several visions in his missionary career. One sent him to preach in Macedonia

During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them - Acts 16:9 - 10

Another encouraged him to keep preaching in Corinth : One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: “Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent. For I am with you, and no one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city.” 11 So Paul stayed in Corinth for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God. - Acts 18:9-11

God also gave him a vision of heaven : Paul's Vision and His Thorn: I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know God knows. And I know that this man whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows was caught up to paradise and heard inexpressible things, things that no one is permitted to tell. I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say,

During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them - Acts 16:9 - 10

John

Nearly the entire book of Revelation is a vision John had while exiled on the island of Patmos. John's vision explains in more detail some of the events that God had shown Daniel.

Today's Dreams and Visions: With the completion of the Bible, God does not have to use dreams and visions as much as He did before. That is not to say that He cannot or does not; God can communicate with us however He chooses. But when we have a decision to make, our first stop should always be the Bible, not a dream.

Christian dream interpretation? Are our dreams from God? Is God giving people in closed countries dreams and visions to bring them to faith in Christ? What are some biblical examples of dream interpretation? What does the Bible say about daydreaming? Is it wrong to daydream?

Ways to Grow In Prophetic Visions

Prophetic Visions The Holy Spirit speaks to God's people in many ways, one of which is through prophetic visions, pictures and visual impressions of the mind.

In the Old Testament, prophets frequently received visions and pictures from God and saw into the spiritual realm. One of the terms used for a prophet was 'seer'. The Hebrew word, ra'ah used by Samuel of himself means to see, look, perceive and have vision - 1 Sam 9:19,

The gift of prophetic vision is carried through to the church today and examples appear throughout the New Testament. On the day of Pentecost, Peter quoted God's word through the Prophet Joel:

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams - Acts 2:17

Types of Prophetic Vision.

A vision usually occurs as a simple picture (or moving picture) coming to mind the Holy Spirit's fleeting imprint upon our imagination.

The New Testament also records a 'trance vision'.

Peter's Vision: The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about [a]the sixth hour. Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance and saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth. In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat." But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common or unclean." And a voice spoke to him again the second time, "What God has [b]cleansed you must not call common." This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again -

Acts 10:9 - 17

During a trance vision, awareness of physical surroundings remains, but the vision also appears real to the senses.

A third type of vision is 'open vision', where a person experiences the vision as a physical reality.

One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, "Cornelius!" Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked. The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God. -Acts 10:3-4

8 Ways to Grow In Prophetic Visions

Would you like to develop your ability to receive pictures, impressions and visions from God? Here are 8 ways you can grow in your gift of spiritual sight:

1. Desire to See What the Father is doing

“Very truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does.” - John 5:19

Firstly ask, ‘What is my motivation for wanting to see in the spiritual realm?’

Your motivation for prophetic vision should be that of Jesus the desire to see what your Father is doing and to know what is on God’s heart. This is not only the highest use of prophetic vision; it is also a guard against deception.

2. Yield Your Imagination to the Holy Spirit

Pray and yield your imagination to the Holy Spirit. Consider your imagination to be a canvas that the Holy Spirit can paint upon. Habakkuk says, ‘I will stand at my watch and station myself on the ramparts; I will look to see what he will say to me - Habakkuk 2:1

If you are not used to this, here are some practical exercises that can help you to activate your imagination. Read or listen to Scripture and picture the stories in your mind's eye.

Imagine them as a movie where are you in the scene?

Picture yourself operating in in the future call and destiny of God upon your life. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you and show you the Father's purposes. Hold onto these visions lightly you can only dream according to what God has revealed to you to date. More will unfold in times to come.

Picture yourself in immediate commitments or challenges that you have, operating in the anointing of the Spirit and in intimacy with God.

Wait on God with your eyes closed during times of reflection and worship. Be expectant to see what the Holy Spirit may show you.

When you are praying for or with others, pause in God's Presence to see if He has anything to show you.

3. Keep a Record of what you See

‘Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald may run with it.’ -

Habakkuk 2:3

ake notes of what you see, so that you can reflect on what God is showing you and keep

T it for future reference. Journaling is a good way to record prophetic pictures and visions, but your method can be as simple as writing down a few notes on your phone or any handy device.

4. Guard What You Look at

I will not look with approval on anything that is vile - Psalm 101:3a

It is vital that you set aside your vision and imagination for the use of the Holy Spirit by guarding what you choose to watch (this includes Internet, TV and movies).

As the Apostle Paul says, ‘In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for special purposes and some for common use. Those who cleanse themselves from the latter [turning from wickedness, will be instruments for special purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work.’ - 2 Tim

2:20 - 21

5. Remember Symbols Require Interpretation

‘The word of the Lord came to me: “What do you see, Jeremiah?” “I see the branch of an almond tree,” I replied. The Lord said to me, You have seen correctly, for I am watching to see that my word is fulfilled - Jeremiah 1:11 - 12

Learn to distinguish between revelation that is plain, requiring no interpretation, and that which is symbolic.

In the Bible, God frequently uses symbols and metaphors in prophetic vision. These require interpretation to explain their meaning.

Sometimes the Holy Spirit does not give an immediate interpretation and invites us to go on a journey of discovery with Him as to the full meaning of a vision.

6. Priorities Study of the Bible

Alongside your regular Bible study, take note of Scriptural symbolism. As you grow in Aprophetic vision, the Holy Spirit will make use of any symbols that are familiar to you, but the first base for interpretation is always Scripture.

7. Operate with Love and Wisdom

Be natural in your approach to growing in your gift of prophetic visions. Practice these tips for beginning in your prophetic ministry.

ove people in the use of your gift practice sharing sensitively and in a positive and L encouraging way. If you don't yet have clarity on the meaning of a picture, and it may be confusing, hold back and pray further. Use wisdom in the timing and manner that you share a picture.

8. Practice 3 Levels of Accountability

There is no hierarchy of importance in the different types of prophetic vision. A simple, fleeting impression given by the Holy Spirit can be just as powerful in its effect and meaning as an open vision and both need to be weighed up. In 2 Corinthians 11:14 the Apostle Paul warns, 'Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light.'

Three levels of accountability are: Personally weighing up the prophecy or vision against Scripture, along with other filters

TA means of accountability in your prophetic gift. As well accountability to your own oversight, this includes accountability unique to certain situations (for example to parents if ministering to a young child, or to the leadership of a church where you have been invited to minister) Accountability for personal guidance and important life decisions. This includes pastoral oversight that knows you well and has the big picture of your life and family in mind.

Who Saw Visions

Daniel

Now I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, while the men who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great dread fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves - Daniel 10:7

Apostle Paul

The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid any longer, but go on speaking and do not be silent - Acts 18:9

And he went out and continued to follow, and he did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision - Acts 12:9

Abraham

After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not fear, Abram, I am a shield to you; Your reward shall be very great." - Genesis 15:1

Nathan spoke to David

In accordance with all these words and all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David - 2 Samuel

7:17

Isaiah

The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz concerning Judah and Jerusalem, which he saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah - Isaiah 1:1

Ezekiel

Now it came about in the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was by the river Chebar among the exiles, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God -

Ezekiel 1:1

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me. In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa in the province of Elam; in the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal. I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal, and the horns were long. One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later. I watched the ram as it charged toward the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became great. As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground. It came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at it in great rage. I saw it attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it; the goat knocked it to the ground and trampled on it, and none could rescue the ram from its power. The goat became very great, but at the height of its power the large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven

- Daniel 8:1-8

And he will go on before the Lord, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the parents to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.” Zechariah asked the angel, “How can I be sure of this? I am an old man and my wife is well along in years.” The angel said to him, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak. When his time of service was completed, he returned home. After this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. “The Lord has done this for me,” she said. “In these days he has shown his favor and taken away my disgrace among the people.”- Luke

And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name.” But the Lord said to Ananias, “Go! This man is my chosen instrument to proclaim my name to the Gentiles and their kings and to the people of Israel. I will show him how much he must suffer for my name.” Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength Acts 9:10 - 19

Peter's Vision

About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles and birds. Then a voice told him, “Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.”

“Surely not, Lord!” Peter replied. “I have never eaten anything impure or unclean.” The voice spoke to him a second time, “Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.”

This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven. While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found out where Simon’s house was and stopped at the gate. They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there. While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Simon, three men are looking for you. So get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them.” Peter went down and said to the men, “I’m the one you’re looking for. Why have you come?” The men replied, “We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man, who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told him to ask you to come to his house so that he could hear what you have to say.” Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests.-

Visions in my personal life

Vision regarding a family destruction

One fine day I was in the early morning prayers. During my prayers, I am praying for a pastor's family. All of sudden I heard some sound like bell in front of me. When I opened my eyes, I saw a statue in front of me. That's around four foot width and four foot length. It's like the statue made by the bronze. That's the metal statue but it's having eyes like human. That's looking towards me and asking me why you are praying for that pastor's family. I asked him what your problem is. The statue said that the pastor and their entire family worshiping me. They are not belonging to Jesus. They are mine. Then I told that statue to get out from my house, otherwise I will bind you in the name of Jesus. The statue immediately disappears from me. Then I asked God what is this? As per my knowledge, that pastor was good person. He always preaches about the re-born experience. He did great ministry, what is this that the statue speaking about him? God told me that pastor's family left me long time back. If they do not turn from their evil paths, I am going to destroy that family after five years. The next day, I shared that vision to the one of the family member of that pastor. That person immediately told me, my vision is the false vision. But after five my vision took place; that pastor's entire family was destroyed. The person who said my vision is false; said sorry to me.

Vision regarding punishment of Pastor ne of the pastor's in my city conducted large public meetings with the cooperation of the local churches. We collected the money from the local churches and from the people for those meetings. Meetings took place wonderful. I was one of the organizers in those meetings. In those meetings the particular pastor who is one of the organizers steed one lack of rupees from the meetings money. Everybody knows that and fears to tell him about that. One fine day I met him at the rail station during my travel. There I found this pastor with the team of people. That pastor got the habit of teasing people. When he found me; started teasing me in front of the people. He is older to me. I took that teasing easy by keeping respect on him. But I told him dear pastor, all the people are talking about you that you steeled one lack of rupees from the meetings money. Please return it to the particular people or give to your church. If you don't do that, God will punish you. He told me that I am the false prophet. I told him that God showed it to me in the vision. He said that's false vision. I went to America after that. After three months, my wife called in phone and said that pastor had the open heart surgery and spent two and half lacks for that operation. I came to know that God fulfilled my vision.

Dream regarding an evil woman

God gave me a dream towards a particular woman. In that dream God showed me that G how she is going to the worldly paths to destroy her spiritual life and the own family.

I have not shared with her about this; as it is the question character. I started watch that woman and her attitudes. She did what the God revealed me in the dream; for the result of that she lost her family peace and the holiness. She never realized about her evil paths and the evil doings. She gone down in her spiritual life and she did part and parcel damage to her family. I realized myself that God revealed this long time back through my dream. I praised God for that gift He gave me and felt sorry for that lady who damaged her family with her own hands.

Vision regarding fall of great servant of God

God gave me the vision regarding one great man of God who was so popular around the world. He was richest person in the world. The world countries kept the red carpet to that man. The whole world is praising him a lot. One fine day God gave the vision regarding that man of God. In that vision God revealed me that the great servant of God will fall in his spiritual life, automatically will fail in every area of his life. I shared that vision with one of my close friends who is the missionary in our area. That missionary immediately told me your vision is wrong. No one can stop that great man of God. I told him that; it will happen within three months. He smiled and said nothing will happen. After three months; that great man of God fell in the spiritual life and he failed in every area of his life also went to jail some time. Then our local missionary realized and told me the vision God gave you is the true vision.

Vision regarding God's servant

God gave me a vision regarding one of the pastors and also the director for an organization. He was the good friend to me. He came from very poor background. Blessed a lot and become the much influenced person in the city. People use to moving around him all the times. All the government heads are the closed friends to him. He use conduct large meetings and helping the poor and needy in the large circle. At one stage he became like an idol to the people. In my vision God told me to tell that person is not in the right path. If he does not set-right himself, I will deal him on my own way. I conveyed that message to him. He simple smiled and said to me, bother I alright; there is no problem. I said it's ok. This is the message from God. Then I stopped to meet him from that day. After one month, I saw in the television news that he died on road and the body took by the police for the postmortem. Then I came to know that the vision was fulfilled.

Vision regarding protection of Leader

Vision regarding the local leader; one of our local leaders got the problem with the other leader who is very strong the evil. That leader came to me told about the evil leader and his actions on him. I told him that God gave me the vision about that evil leader, who is going to die within six months. So, do not see his face till the six months. Do not try to face him any time till six months, after that you will not see him anymore. That man took my word and watching till the six months. Then he came to me one fine day and told me that the evil leader was dead. I came to know that God fulfilled the vision.

Vision regarding an Apostle's fall ne of the apostles who were good friend to me came to our place to minister to our people. When left our area, we are all praying for him. We are also expecting him to visit us again. He did great help to our ministry. He was also the good speaker. Many were blessed through his sermons. One fine day; during my prayer time God gave me the vision that the apostle will not come to our area again. I asked God about the reason. God revealed me that he was in trouble and fall in the spiritual life. And also God revealed me that he will come back again from the fall. After sometime I came to know that the apostle fall in the spiritual life. He took around six months to restore himself from the fall. Then I realized that the vision God gave me was fulfilled.

The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit - 1 Corinthians 2:14

Visions and dreams; most of the Christian community in these days does not understand and also they mock others when somebody shares the visions and dreams.

Only a spiritual person can understand the visions and the dreams.

Coming to my life and the ministry, I believe in the visions and dreams one hundred percent. The reason for that, I had many visions and the dreams in my life journey.

For every situation, God used to speak to me through the vision or dream they all took place in my life.

I thought to share this message to the entire world. For that reason I wrote this book. This book will help the people who believe in visions and dreams. Also helps people who don't believe; to understand in detail with the Bible references.

The revelation that God gave to the Apostle John "Book of Revelation" is happening and will take place in the coming days. Please go through my book "Revealed Revelation" and also the "Book of Revelation" to prepare yourself and others to the rapture to meet the Living God to live with Him forever and ever in the eternal life.

May God Bless You
